

Work at-home Remote Ergonomic Assessment

ERGOhealthy Coaches work with people via online and telephone to conduct ergonomic assessments and solve ergonomic problems.

When you need an office ergonomics assessment there's no substitute for an expert evaluation.

Our ergonomics team has been carefully assembled based on their EXCEPTIONAL technical and service skills, follow-up, patience, and love (yes love) for people.

We perform 97% of our office ergonomic evaluations remotely with a 95% success rate. Not every evaluation can be performed remotely (hence the 95% success rate).
